

(X) PoT Gaps

Please read everything carefully.

* Required

1. Participant's Code *

You received your code by email. Here just put the number code that you received. It should look like this: `P92`

2. Name *

Just the first name.

Fill in the form

Please fill in the gaps with the words you have seen during the game if they fit, or from your own knowledge.

Use the words you saw during the game

For some of the gaps you need to use the words you saw during the experiment. But some others are not related and you need to use the words that you know from before.

Don't worry

It is not a school test. Just try to remember what you learned and write it. If nothing comes to your mind for some of the gaps just put a question mark: ?

Spelling doesn't matter

The spelling does not matter. If you just remember how the word sounded like, that is enough. For example if you don't remember how to write "Mountain" but you remember how is the word, just write: "Montan" This is still fine.

Don't get help

Please fill the form all by yourself and do not ask anyone for help. Do not use internet or dictionary to find out about the answers because there is no grading. There is no winning or losing in the form. So do it alone and make sure you submit it in the end.

Email to a Friend

Below is an email a friend of you is writing for your other common friend. But he always forgets some words. Please help him remember what those words were that he needs and cannot remember.

3. Yesterday I was relaxing at home and cutting my apple with a/an _____ in front of the TV. *
- _____
4. There was a news channel on and the _____ was reporting the weather forecast for the next week. There were snow storms coming up. *
- _____
5. Then there was some news about a school's _____ who heroically saved one of his students from a car accident. *
- _____
6. You should be careful while crossing the _____. The cars sometimes could be really careless. *
- _____
7. Later in the news the _____ of Sweden in the United Nations was representing Sweden's government position about global warming. He was reading a letter from the king of Sweden. That is a person who represents a group of people or a government officially and gives speeches. *
- _____
8. I just turned off the TV because I do not trust the politicians when they make _____ that later they break them. *
- _____

9. Anyways, I was planning to go camping this very next week. I have a one person sized _____ which * is always my small temporary shelter in the mountains during the nights. I set it up and put my sleeping bag in it as well.
-

10. I have heard of a new _____ that I didn't know before. They say it is very high and very sharp. A * great natural wall with solid rocks. Great for climbing and camping above. You will see a great panorama above this sudden geological elevation.
-

11. They say after you climb there, you will see a very beautiful and green _____ with thousands of * trees and small animals like squirrels and rabbits.
-

12. I just need to take my spacious _____ and put my stuff in it for the trip. *
-

13. I surely need to take a/an _____ with me to measure height. I really need to know how high I * climb the cliffs, because I might get some breathing problems up there.
-

14. Just imagine, finding some _____ and making a fire out of it and then chilling around it during * the night in the nature, while having a warm tea.
-

15. Yesterday I bought an orange flavored soda which I love. I need to carefully pour my soda into the * camping bottle I have with a/an _____ so that I won't lose any drop of my precious drink.
-

16. I have some cool climbing equipment as well. The most important is a long _____ which I hang my clips from it while climbing so that I'm safe in case I fall. I can also pull my friends up with that. *

Me and
Elsa

I am writing a blog post about myself. Please help me remember these words.

17. I have studied at the university to solve practical problems with my scientific knowledge. So you could say that I am a/an _____. That is why I like to take my tools with me to build up things. *

18. My favourite tool is a/an _____ which is very handy and can stabilise any nail or crash any rock. I've gotten it from my dad. A perfect rubbery hammer to do whatever you want with it. *

19. I work in a chemical factory and there was an explosion last week. Everyone is safe. But in the _____ that remained after the explosion they've found some weird chemicals. No one knew where did that come from. *

20. My very dear friend Elsa also works there. She is /an _____ and can attach and join the metals in the strongest way possible. She is very good at her job. We usually build many cool devices together. *

21. Last month we wanted to visit an airline museum. There was a statute of a/an _____ who landed a passenger airplane which had a gear problem. He could eventually save 254 people. *

22. They had made a restaurant out of the main part of an airplane which is called a/an _____. The place that the passengers sit. They had removed the seats and made it like a hall. *

23. On the way back to home we got lost in the middle of nowhere. The only high thing there was a short _____ with a bit of height from the ground. It is some type of short hill. We stood on it to see things better. *

24. Other than that it was all a green _____ full of grass and happy bees. *

25. It was all good until the weather became rainy and there were lots of gray _____ in the sky. *

26. After the rain there was a/an _____ which is when ice drops from the sky. *

27. It was difficult to find the way back. But eventually we used our _____ to find our way out to the north and then find the main road. Good that we took it because our phones died and we didn't have GPS. *

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google.

Google Forms